FRANCIS MARION
HOTEL

Welcome to the Francis Marion Hotel, Charleston's landmark hotel since 1924. As part of Historic Hotels of America, we pride ourselves on the preservation of our historic property and wish to share our cherished history with you during your stay.

Our location in the heart of historic Charleston presents the opportunity to experience Charleston's wonderful blend of the historic charm and modern hospitality. Many dining options. Theaters and locally owned boutiques are right outside our door.

Charleston is South Carolina's historic coastal destination named #1 City by Conde Nast Traveler Readers' Choice multiple years in a row. Whether you wish to view historic homes, explore fascinating forts or simply relax on a coastal beach you will find that our hotel is central to the most exciting parts of Charleston.

While visiting us, don't miss the opportunity to dine at the Swamp Fox Restaurant & Bar where our Executive Chef blends local flavors with fresh fruits, vegetables and seafood to create beloved Southern favorites such as our award-winning Shrimp and Grits.

The Francis Marion staff dedicates attention to the smallest of details and proudly upholds the gracious service and southern hospitality that distinguishes Charleston as America's "most polite city". Thank you for choosing the Francis Marion Hotel and please do not hesitate to let us know if we can be of service during your stay.

Warm Regards,
Stephen Parker
Hotel Manager

FRANCIS MARION
HOTEL

Opened in 1924 at a cost of $1.5 million, the Francis Marion Hotel was the largest and grandest in the Carolinas. Named for General Francis Marion, the "Swamp Fox" of the American Revolution, the historic Francis Marion Hotel has a long tradition of gracious service, elegant accommodations and splendid banquet and meeting facilities.

Rising 12 stories above the historic district, many of the Hotel's 235 guestrooms and suites offer spectacular views of Charleston's church steeples, historic mansions and famous harbor. Located downtown on historic Marion Square, the magnificent gardens, house museums, antique shops, local boutiques, restaurants and nightlife that make Charleston unique, are all an easy walk from the Hotel.

The Francis Marion Hotel offers all the traditional services of a grand hotel-valet parking, concierge, room service, complimentary wireless Internet, business and fitness centers, classic southern cuisine in The Swamp Fox Restaurant and Bar, jazz piano music in the lounge, a complete day spa at Spa Adagio and gourmet coffee from Starbucks.

With 20,00 square feet of meeting and banquet space, including two historic ballrooms and the Carolina Conference Facility, the Francis Marion Hotel remains at the center of Charleston's social, business and community life- a long tradition of gracious service in America's "most polite city".

Weddings and Social Events

The Francis Marion Hotel has three of the most beautiful ballrooms in the Lowcountry. Two of our ballrooms were originally opened over 90 years ago and the architectural design is truly unique. Our elegant chandeliers, 20 foot ceilings, tall windows and fireplaces create the perfect setting for an elegant wedding reception or social event. The Gold Ballroom features the original crystal chandeliers and hardwood floors. A 250-year old gold mirror hangs above the marble fireplace and gilt crown-moldings and egg & dart frescoes evoke old-world Charleston charm. The colonial Ballroom has mahogany panels, decorative wrought-iron railings and elaborate moldings. Mahogany columns flank both dies of the marble fireplace and the ceiling is hung with beautifully updated chandeliers. Magnificent windows look out over Marion Square and church steeples. Located on the penthouse level, our Bridgeview Suite with breathtaking views can accommodate up to 30 people for an intimate rehearsal dinner or brunch.

Our professional event coordinators can custom design a catering package to suit your needs. catering options are limitless and our Executive chef can custom design a menu just for you. Our catering menus create a vibrant and memorable event. Many of out menus feature regional specialties that emphasize local produce blended with the beloved flavors of the Lowcountry. Shrimp is one of the most popular ingredients used in Lowcountry cuisine and you will find our award-winning shrimp and grits to be extraordinary. We look forward to sharing our cuisine with you and all of your guests.
