Unitarian Church in Charleston
It is the oldest Unitarian church in the South and the second oldest church building on the peninsula of Charleston. Not only is the inside of the church beautiful and often times open for the public to view, the gardens and cemetery next to the church is beautiful as well.

Pineapple Fountain
Quintessential Charleston, a stop at the Pineapple Fountain at Waterfront Park is a must. Catch the pineapple early in the morning for a more empty photo op. Sunset is also a wonderful time to visit.

Hutson Alley
String lights, cobblestone & ivy filled buildings line this alleyway along with a variety of bars & restaurants. The perfect alley to easily bar hop (or appetizer hop!) while also feeling you’re far away in a quaint European city.

Washington Square
The park, with its mature canopy of live oaks, is the perfect place to sit and enjoy a quiet moment. It is one of the more manicured parks, with floral displays changed throughout the year and over-seeded lawn in the winter months. The ironwork and architectural features make this park a must-see when walking the streets of Charleston.
