

THE SWAMP FOX TREATMENT AT THE SPA OF CHARLESTON

The United States of America may still be British colonies if not for the dashing bravery and leadership of our hotel's namesake, Francis Marion. He earned his moniker, The Swamp Fox, due to his sly-like-a-fox military maneuvers in the swamps of Charleston. Our Swamp Fox restaurant serves the Ankle Breaker cocktail in honor of his famed injury from jumping from a high window to escape the British hot on his trail, and this treatment includes this "feel no pain" cocktail paired with the healing benefits of your massage and a pain-relieving blend of CBD and Bourbon Bubbler scrub.

Includes a complimentary Ankle Breaker cocktail & 10% off at the Swamp Fox.
